Meet Orly Faya

Anthropological Artist
Art Immersion & Eco Therapist
Creative Activist & Earth Advocate

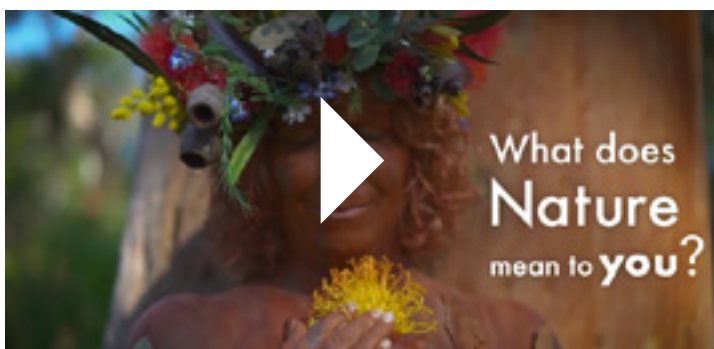

An explorer of consciousness, Orly began her enquiry into the human experience at a very young age. Growing up in a family environment rich with personal development and spiritual exploration, Orly's strong foundations formed the basis for her continuous quest to understand our existence on our planet Earth, personally, communally and globally.

Initiated as a reiki level II from the age of 14, energy work has always been a familiar conversation and practice in Orly's life. Her fascination with culture and humanity lead her to complete a BA in Anthropology in 2007 and Orly spent the next 18 years travelling, living in various continents, such as India, Israel and Peru and delving deeply into the impacts and meaning of our human existence. Orly spent time with Shamans in the Amazon and Babas on the Ganges, learning ancient ceremonial practices for healing through living harmoniously with the energies around us. Practising Yoga ,working with medicinal plants and living amongst the religious, have all strengthened her sense of healing and vision and given her a fuller framework for supporting others in their spiritual path.

Orly has spent years collaborating with Indigenous Peoples of the world, learning and growing from ancient teachings, continually humbled by the magnitude of human experience and wisdom, of which there is always more to learn. With a clear focus on environmental and humanitarian activism, Orly's creative contributions have extended to World Wildlife Fund, The Biosphere Foundation, Madhima Gulgan Community Association, BeardsOn Initiative, The Bob Brown Foundation, TreeSisters, and Planet Ark. Orly is internationally recognised award winning body painter who has worked in over 10 countries with clients and colleagues all over the world. Her message through her current practice is simple: We come from the Earth and return to the Earth.

Orly works as a Spiritual Coach and has been offers her body painting process as a vehicle for self-illumination and self-empowerment, for the last 8 years. As humans, we are always in a state of hurting and healing, feeling seperate and feeling connected. FAQ

What paints do you use?

All types of professional body paints such as TAG, Kryolan, DiamondFX, Wolf... Beeswax based, non-toxic professional body paint that comes straight off with water.

How long does the painting process take?

The painting production itself can take anywhere between 1-3 hours, dependant upon a number of factors i.e. how many people, how much of the body is painted, what the location requires of us, how the weather is that day.... The average painting time is 1.5hrs + 20 min photoshoot.

How many images will I receive?

1. The Outdoor Merge Package includes 8 images The Big Picture, Landscape, Portrait and Close Up. + optional behind the scenes and/or video. 4 High resolution Print Quality Final artworks and another 4 lower resolution online versions of all works.
2. The Indoor Studio Merge results in maximum two variations of the image, as the backdrop is just big enough to contain you (and your partner). The variation will be a cropped close up, should you prefer this perspective.

Do I have to be still the whole time?

Yes, we work fast and intentionally, and stillness is the only way. However, if you are feeling faint or nauseas then we will sit down and wait for it to pass, and then continue. Breaks are easier for Indoor Merges as we are in no rush with the support of lighting.

What does the process consist of?

2. Exploration/Design Coaching Session
3. Location Assessment/Artwork backdrop design
4. Pre Merge Ceremony
5. Painting production

How can this process be Healing?

To shed our external later, be it clothing, or identity, creates space for us to tap into our essential nature. Being in the nature, effortlessly reconnects us to our joyful source, as children of the earth. Just as being heard feels nourishing, being 'seen' by another, is a very powerful transformational space to occupy. As we work, we will dive deep into presence, breath and intentions that have been set within our ceremony. The Merge experience is an opportunity to surrender our egos to the process and release control. The final artwork will reverberate your message, prayers and essential 'beingness', as well as your inherent connection to nature. You may find yourself lighter, and revitalised by this experience, and the gifts of the artwork will be endless, as you grow older in your body, and wiser in your soul.

Should I eat before?

Yes! Food glorious good is the nourishing energy source we need for Merging.

Will I be naked in public?

If public means outside, then quite possibly, but there may not actually be people around, and we will always have someone present to 'hold space', ensuring that we are safe from any people interacting with us during the process/ do not take pictures and that we are looked after in all respects. All precautions are taken for your comfort, with blankets that can be held up if needs be, however, a part of this process is baring all to the world, a declaration of your human body perfection. The studio situation is obviously private, held and controlled environment and is recommended for pregnancy, aged people and the unwell.

Will the works be made public?

Merging with Orly Faya is born out of the intention to support humanity reconnect to our essential nature and initiate planetary healing. Therefore yes, the works (no nude or nipples) are shared on Orly Faya's online channels. No one is tagged in these images and names are not included in the posts. Orly Faya retains rights to her works unless commercial in which case different rates apply.

Can I use the artwork for promoting my business?

You may opt in for a commercial license either when you create the artwork, or further down the track. That is, if you initially opt for a personal session and decide later on that you wish to use the work commercially, then you can get in contact and we will provide you with a licensing agreement. Rates are relative to the time of purchase.

Can I use the image on social media?

Of course! The artwork you wish to use can be shared directly through my Page Post, by simply clicking on SHARE. If you wish to use as a profile then simply click on OPTIONS bottom right and elect to MAKE PROFILE PICTURE. If you wish to upload the image yourself, you must include a reference in the comments section that reads: "Art & photography by @Orly Faya www.orlyfaya.com"

Can I bring a friend or partner?

Yes, this is encouraged as the third person becomes the sacred space holder and third point on the triangle of creation, triangle being the basic building block of consciousness and so powerful significant in the manifestation of prayer.

Can we take photos of the process?

Yes you can take personal behind the scenes photos of the process, but not the FINAL ART image which is reserved for Orly Faya. Posting images of the process on social media requires the same credit referencing as above "Art & photography by @Orly Faya www.orlyfaya.com

First off thank you so very much for sharing your amazing talents and gifts with us. That was such a special and sacred thing that we got to do and I feel super grateful that we were able to cross paths with you. Calling your work Merging into the Earth is such a perfect name - that's truly what it felt like happened. You weave a rare and special magic with your brushes and colours - it felt like we were connecting with each other and with the land and sky in such a direct and open way. It's something that we will both remember for always.

- Vince and Maja Polito

Two week ago, Orly took us through an amazing journey. I loved her down to earth approach, her friendliness and her uniqueness. The experience was enlightening and full of delight. Orly is masterful, sensitive and spiritually engaging, which drives a very personal interaction and a unique piece of art. Thank you, for everything that you are and for being a part of our world that weekend. I am sure that whatever you do and wherever you go, you will leave your imprint and smiles on people's faces.

- David Carr & Suzanna

Such great moments we experienced together. We loved it so much! And thank you so much for that amazing memories your masterpiece will always remind us of.

- Florian & Laura (US & Germany)

Dear Orly, thank you for giving both Lexodious and myself the opportunity to be able to be part of an amazing piece of artwork, especially which shows our connection to country and our belonging to each other - soul mates. Being two of many Traditional Custodians of the Sydney and Blue Mountains area, it has been an honour and a privilege. You truly captured our love for Mother Earth (Bembul Wiana), Father Sky (Burra Biana) and everything in between. Especially, the abundance of love (ngubadimari) that both Lex and I have for each other and together, intrinsically living our culture. We walk with you on this journey together, supporting you in all your endeavours.
