Meet Orly Faya

Anthropological Artist
Art Immersion & Eco Therapist
Creative Activist & Earth Advocate

An explorer of consciousness, Orly began her enquiry into the human experience at a very young age. Growing up in a family environment rich with personal development and spiritual exploration, Orly's strong foundations formed the basis for her continuous quest to understand our existence on our planet Earth, personally, communally and globally.

Orly Faya is an internationally recognised award winning body painter, ecotherapeutic artist, speaker, and facilitator of healing through creativity and art immersion. She is committed to the healing of the planet through supporting each individual person's journey of reconnection to our essential nature.

Orly's Journey 'Painting People into the World', began over four years ago whilst visiting the jungles of Peru on her own healing quest. During her first week in Peru she met with an old wise Shamana and participated in traditional healing plant medicine ceremonies. It was there, in those cosmic realms, that the visions of People Merged with the Earth through her paintbrush, were revealed to her. Since that moment, Orly's passion for creative & ecotherapeutic ways of healing have been central to her practice of body painting.

Having practiced and learnt ceremonial wisdoms directly from Indigenous peoples around the world, Orly facilitates a healing journey with body paint and photography that is imbued with ancient understandings of energy, metaphor, and metaphysics. Merging human form, spirit and intention with the raw living earth, Orly taps into a dimension that reveals an eternal and forgotten truth; that we humans were born from this very earth that we walk upon. This basic realisation, embodied, forms the basis of healing, to reconnect to our most essential nature that is part of a bigger picture - part of the biosphere and part of the cosmos.

For the last 3 years, Orly has made this experience available for everyday people seeking to deepen their connection with themselves, their partners and the earth itself. Offering a unique opportunity to Merge with the World through Art, Magic and Stillness, Orly customises each merge Session according to YOUR specific intentions. Through identifying the most meaningful reasons for Merging, couples are able to be held in a creative and transformative space of manifestation and healing. Each experience represents the extremely unique nature of each person, each piece of land and each moment in time.

First off thank you so very much for sharing your amazing talents and gifts with us. That was such a special and sacred thing that we got to do and I feel super grateful that we were able to cross paths with you. Calling your work Merging into the Earth is such a perfect name - that's truly what it felt like happened. You weave a rare and special magic with your brushes and colours - it felt like we were connecting with each other and with the land and sky in such a direct and open way. It's something that we will both remember for always.

Two week ago, Orly took us through an amazing journey. I loved her down to earth approach, her friendliness and her uniqueness. The experience was enlightening and full of delight. Orly is masterful, sensitive and spiritually engaging, which drives a very personal interaction and a unique piece of art. Thank you, for everything that you are and for being a part of our world that weekend. I am sure that whatever you do and wherever you go, you will leave your imprint and smiles on people's faces.

Such great moments we experienced together. We loved it so much! And thank you so much for that amazing memories your masterpiece will always remind us of.

- Florian & Laura (US & Germany)

Dear Orly, thank you for giving both Lexodious and myself the opportunity to be able to be part of an amazing piece of artwork, especially which shows our connection to country and our belonging to each other - soul mates. Being two of many Traditional Custodians of the Sydney and Blue Mountains area, it has been an honour and a privilege. You truly captured our love for Mother Earth (Bembul Wiana), Father Sky (Burra Biana) and everything in between. Especially, the abundance of love (ngubadimari) that both Lex and I have for each other and together, intrinsically living our culture. We walk with you on this journey together, supporting you in all your endeavours.

Behind the Scenes

FAQ

What paints do you use?

All types of professional body paints such as TAG, Kryolan, DiamondFX, Wolf, Beeswaxbased... They are nontoxic and come off quickly and completely with water.

How long does the painting process take?

The painting production itself can take anywhere between 1 – 4 hours, dependent upon all the factors – how many people, how much of the body is painted, what the location requires of us, how the weather is that day + more! The average time taken is 1.5 hours.

How many images will I receive?

The Merge Package includes 8 images – 4 high resolution print quality artworks, and 4 lower resolution online versions + 2 behind the scenes images. The four main images are: The Big Picture, Landscape, Portrait and Close Up. Optional behind-the-scenes photography and/or video is available at an additional charge.

What does the process consist of?

Please read the Merging Info Document (ABOVE) for a step-by-step description of our process.

In what way can I expect to receive the healing?

To understand the healing process, it is first important to understand ourselves as energy that transmits and transmutes through ALL processes. When it comes to our personal processes of healing, it is always recommended to first identify what your expectations are (i.e. what does healing look like for you in your life?) and then transform expectations into intentions in order to receive and manifest your own healing through the blessing of this experience. Beginning with a small ceremony, we are able to unite our shared intentions and set the stage for our work. Painting on skin is intimate and sensual by nature, and so we are immediately brought into a space of trust, love and care through this action - each stroke is applied lovingly and you, the recipient, is invited to consciously receive the love through the sensation itself. Many feelings can occur throughout this process, from feelings of being faint and nauseous, to elation and bliss. This is the alchemy of unification, when the earth you merge with and your own body unites, either together with your partner, or with a deeper sense of your self... to be seen, to disappear, to feel whole as ONE.

Should I eat before?

Definitely YES, its amazing how much energy is needed for Merging sessions!

Do I have to be still the whole time?

The quick answer is YES! But don't worry, we work fast and intentionally. Of course, if you are feeling unwell in any way, we will sit down and wait for it to pass, before continuing. Throughout the experience we practice conscious breathing and this really helps our overall focus and speed.

Will I be naked in public?

If public means outside, then quite possibly, but there may not actually be people around, and we will always have 2 people present to 'hold space', ensuring that no random people interact with us during the process or take pictures and that we are looked after in all respects in order for us to be completely present. All precautions are taken for your safety, however transformation rarely occurs in comfort. A part of this process is baring all to the world, a declaration of your human body perfection. Of course we shall have sheets to hold up for modesty.

Will the works be made public?

"The works are made for the world to see, for the earth to feel, and for our world to come back together. There is a big picture to this story and I love to work with people who are willing to share themselves with the whole world so that healing can occur on a mass scale."

Orly Faya retains rights to all works unless for commercial purposes, in which case different rates apply. Details to purchase exclusive rights are provided upon request. All images from personal sessions may be used to promote Orly Faya, and for editorial purposes.

Sure! You can opt for a commercial license option listed on the rate card. If you bought a personal license only and decide later on that you wish to use commercially, then a commercial license must be purchased before use. Rates are relevant to the time of purchase.

Can I bring my partner/my friend?

Yes in fact we ask that you do have a close friend join us on the day of the production to be part of, witness and support this amazing ceremony.

Can we take photos of the process?

You are welcome to opt for a professional photographer to be with us, who will take the best pictures of the process!

We also provide the option of behind the scenes film so that you can reflect and remember all the yummy nuances of this once-in-a-lifetime creative experience. Well worth it!
